

I believe that before any rule changes on media ownership are made, there needs to be a chance for the public to know what the proposed rule changes are and those changes need to then be openly discussed and even studied before they can be voted on. I strongly urge you to make public what the proposed changes are and to postpone the FCC vote that is scheduled for June 2.

Sincerely, Allie Gassmann